

CORE-IEA-Bogazici University

Core Workshop Agenda

Saturday, June 4th 2016

*Boğaziçi University (South Campus), Istanbul
Ibrahim Bodur Auditorium*

- 9.30 – 9.45
Welcome and Introductions
- 9.45 - 10.15
On Undergraduate Curriculum - Student views
Mustafa Kaba and Anıl Aşkın (Bogazici Political Economy Society)
Pınar Ertör and Tuğçe Tung (Department of Economics, Boğaziçi University)
- 10.15 – 11.30
CORE Analytical Vision and the Recent Experience
Wendy Carlin (University College London) and Sam Bowles (Sante Fe Institute)
Comments by Refik Erzan (Boğaziçi University) and Burak Ünveren (Yıldız Technical University)

Coffee Break

- 11.45 – 13.00
Commentary on CORE: Criticisms and Proposals
Colleagues/participants having looked at the CORE material will comment on the CORE approach based on their own research and course teaching experience.

Lunch

- 14.30 – 15.45
Adapting CORE for Turkish Students and Turkish Reality
Comments and proposals from colleagues/participants experienced in intro course teaching, well-familiar with the Turkey's case, and/or familiar with the CORE curriculum.

Coffee Break

- 16.15 – 17.30
Teaching CORE: Pedagogy, Resources and Next steps
Wendy Carlin (University College London), Sam Bowles (Sante Fe Institute)

Important Notes:

- Participants based outside of Istanbul can get IEA funding for their travel/accommodation expenses. Please contact Turkish Economic Association: tekrtr@gmail.com and info@tek.org.tr Tel: 0312 468 2589
- For the CORE project website and The Economy online textbook, please check <http://www.core-econ.org/>
- Some further links: Royal Economic Society video about the pressures to change economics and CORE's response is here and CORE in 60 seconds is here.
- For any queries, please contact: pinarertor@gmail.com